

All of which the undersigned respectfully indulges the hope, will meet with the approbation of your committee and of the Legislature, for whose more especial use it has been so constructed and fitted up.

The librarian being authorised and directed to dispose of all the smaller size editions of works in the library, in exchange for those of the larger editions, or for such other works as he might deem to be more suitable to the character of the library, and to sell the remaining sets of Hume's, Smollett's and Bisset's History of England, effected an exchange and sale of the same. Lists of the works thus sold and exchanged and those procured in their stead, are now submitted, Letter C and D.

Other orders of your committee, of minor importance, have been also duly executed, as may be seen by reference to the minute Book belonging to the department.
